National nonprofit credit counseling agency GreenPath Inc. plans to break ground Thursday on its new Farmington Hills headquarters.

GreenPath did not release the estimated cost of the project.

The planned, 125,000-square-foot, four-story building will be located on 10.5 acres of land just east of Halstead on the south side of 12 Mile Road, less than one mile from the current headquarters and less than two miles from GreenPath's current call center.

The new headquarters will accommodate up to 600 employees, allowing GreenPath to consolidate its call center and corporate functions under one roof and to meet growing demand for consumer education and counseling in debt management, housing, bankruptcy and money management.

GreenPath said in a release that it expects the building, which will incorporate green features and more than 500 parking spaces, to be completed by the spring of 2011.

The project will include the preservation of wetlands in the area, the company said.
