

Helpful Online Resources

Housing

www.zillow.com

Provides information about real estate and mortgages - home value estimates, recent sales, and neighborhood statistics. Keep in mind, Zillow provides estimates but does not guarantee values.

www.realestate.yahoo.com

Allows for searches of home sale postings, financial articles, and calculators as well as rental opportunities, realtor links and neighborhood information.

Health

www.healthcare.gov

A website by the federal government outlining healthcare program options available for families with children, individuals, people with disabilities, seniors, young adults, and employers.

www.pparx.org

Helps people with little or no prescription coverage to get the medications they need free, or nearly free, by increasing awareness of patient assistance programs.

Buying /Selling

www.craigslist.com

A community based website for buying and selling items with people in your area. You can also look for employment and special interest groups.

www.etsy.com

Allows you to safely browse, purchase, or sell handmade products nationwide as well as internationally.

Eating

www.restaurant.com

A nationwide restaurant discount program where you can purchase gift cards to local restaurants at a minimum of 60% off. Be sure to read the restrictions.

www.angelfoodministries.com

A non-profit Christian organization that provides food relief and financial support to communities nation-wide.

Other

www.bankrate.com

Provides free, up-to-date financial rate information and calculators on many financial products, like mortgages, auto loans, credit cards, etc. Also, publishes articles for the latest financial news.

www.studentloanborrowerassistance.org

A resource for borrowers and their advocates to learn more about student loans as well as their options and rights. Legal advice is not provided.

www.aarp.org

A non-profit, non-partisan organization that helps people ages 50 and older improve the quality of their lives, contains information and resources on topics such as health, money, travel, technology, and more.

www.liveunited.org

A network of non-profit United Way branches that have programs for education, income, health, disaster recovery, and a nationwide referral hotline (2-1-1).